

CAROLINE HAINES
Prospective Court of Common Council candidate for the Ward of Queenhithe
March 2017

Dear Elector,

In March 2017 there will be Common Councilman elections across every ward in the City of London. I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself as a prospective candidate for the Ward of Queenhithe.

Having long held an interest in the City of London and, more specifically, a close relationship with Queenhithe Ward, I am keen to represent more formally the residents, businesses and institutions that are stakeholders in the Ward.

As a Past Chair of Queenhithe Ward Club, the wife of our retiring Alderman, on the Electoral Roll of the Ward and the Parish Electoral Roll for the church of St. James Garlickhythe, I have a personal relationship with Queenhithe going back over 30 years.

My career as an Educator is defined by three phases: the first at the classroom rock face and in Middle management, the second in Senior Leadership positions, becoming the Head of a 16 - 19 College in North London and currently as a Consultant Educationalist with a focus on Marketing and Development & an administrative base in Little Trinity Lane.

A Court Assistant for the Worshipful Company of Educators, a past Mistress Painter-Stainer and a future Mistress Horner, my Livery activities are centred in Queenhithe at Painters Hall.

Over the last 12 years many Queenhithe Ward residents and businesses have supported my charity events – such as the Pink Lunch Fashion Show, the Guildhall Red Cross Christmas Market and the Christmas Toy Collection for the Salvation Army. Following the 2016 Spring Wardmote I am developing another partnership project with the SA. Details will appear on my website.

I believe that Queenhithe is a great place to live, work and learn. Over the last 12 years I have followed the issues arising from the development of and change to the built environment and I am supportive of anything that can be done to improve the quality of our environment & open spaces. As a Trustee of the newly formed Queenhithe Arts Trust I am committed to the goal of transforming our historic yet vital Ward into a dynamic and attractive location.

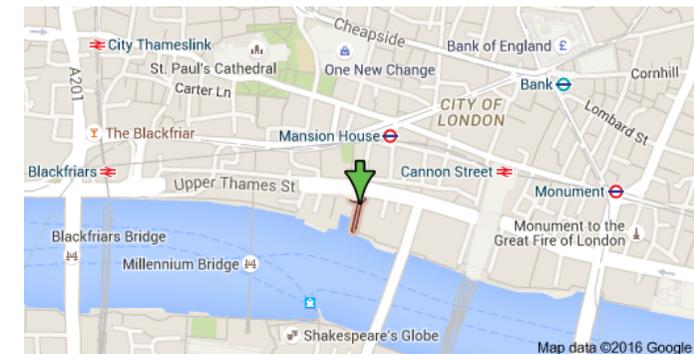

There is still much to do and so I am keen to hear your views.

Please get in touch.
